False Dichotomy

Great are the works of the Lord; they are pondered by all who delight in them. – Psalm 111:2

Dogmatization of Science

Trust the science!

An assault on God!

Turn away from godless chatter and the opposing ideas of what is falsely called knowledge. – 1 Timothy 6:20

True Science Avoids Certainty

Hypothesis testing

Those who think they know something do not yet know as they ought to know. – 1 Corinthians 8:2

An Artificial Battleground

Intellectual exile

Secular skepticism

Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. – John 8:32

Creation vs. Evolution

About who

About how

By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible. – Hebrews 11:3

Miracles vs. Natural Laws

Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. – Matthew 14:25

Divine Hunt for Truth and Wisdom

Natural philosophy

Love of wisdom

The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, get understanding. – Proverbs 4:7

A Sacred Partnership

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings. – Proverbs 25:2

Johannes Kepler's Vision

I was merely thinking God's thoughts after him.

The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands. – Psalm 19:1

I remember the days of long ago; I meditate on all your works and consider what your hands have done. – Psalm 143:5

Are You Ready to Love God Also with All Your Mind?

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. – Matthew 22:37

A dark, atmospheric photograph of a forest path. The path is illuminated by a soft, ethereal light, possibly from the moon or a distant light source, creating a misty or foggy effect. The trees are tall and thin, with bare branches, suggesting a winter or late autumn setting. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.
